What is Noyes First Steps?

Services are available to pregnant women of any age, regardless of insurance.

Noyes First Steps is a Health Support Service Program based at Noyes Memorial Hospital that supports the insurance enrollment and the education and social needs of pregnant women.

If you are eligible after the enrollment interview, expanded Medicaid will pay for hospital inpatient care and medical care for up to 60 days after the birth month.

You could be eligible for medical coverage the day you apply.

Your baby could be eligible for medical coverage until he or she is one year old.

Do you have questions about pregnancy?

The staff at Noyes First Steps will make you feel comfortable with their knowledge about pregnancy and your special needs.

The support and information the program offers will help you gain the knowledge and confidence needed to have a healthy pregnancy.

Why are these services important?

- ♥ To maximize a child's healthy start in life.
- ♥ To obtain insurance and proper medical care for you and your baby.

The physician's office will provide:

- ♥ Pregnancy testing.
- ♥ Prenatal office visits, laboratory and ultrasound tests, and prenatal vitamins.

The Noyes First Steps staff will assist you with:

- ♥ Obtaining insurance and/or medical services for yourself and your baby.
- ♥ Connections with physicians as needed.
- ♥ Prenatal health education: nutrition, labor and delivery.
- ♥ Confidential HIV counseling.
- ♥ Free Classes: Childbirth and Infant Feeding.
- ♥ Referrals to other services and agencies as needed.
- ♥ Advocacy with DSS and other service providers.
- ♥ Assistance and information on housing, transportation, and other needs.
- ♥ Individual and family concerns.
- ♥ Assistance with paternity and custody issues.
- ♥ Car Seat Safety Program for infant car seats.
